to Come Along Before the Grand Jury

If He Wants To and They Il Have a Showdown-Not Munro's First Trouble. The Rev. John J. Munro, for more than ten years one of the so-called chaplains of the Tombs prison, has lost his pass and Commissioner John V. Coggey, of the Department of Correction has given orders that he must not be permitted to go into that or any of the city's other prisons. 'And when he came to my office a few days ago demanding why I had revoked his pass," said Commissioner Coggey yesterday, "I told him that it was for good and sufficient reasons. I told him also that if he cared to make good his threat as given in certain newspaper interviews to go before the Grand Jury and expose abuses in the Tombs I would gladly meet him there or before any other competent investigating body. I told him to get out of my office. As head of my department I have full power in the premises. I need make no explanation of why I revoked this man's pass. But I readily waive all that and whenever the reverend gentleman gets ready I shall accommodate him with all the explanations he needs.

whenever the reverend gentieman gets ready I shall accommodate him with all the explanations he needs."

Mr. Munro began his work as chaplain of the Tombs ten years ago. He was supported by the Prison Evangelistic Society, representing Baptists, Dutch Reformed, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian faiths.

In November, 1905, the Prison Gate Association, which he managed, voted to disband because of dissatisfaction with him. One complaint related to an attempt to influence a Magistrate in favor of a prison committee for an offence against little children. At this time he resigned as chaplain, the resignation to take effect in February, 1906. He was succeeded in the latter capacity by the Rev. Dr. Sanderson. Warden Flynn says that his resignation was brought about by his own people on account of friction with the other chaplains and "for other reasons." The chaplains who are said to have declared Mr. Munro impossible as a coworker are the Rev. Father Luke J. Evers of St. Andrew's Church, Roman Catholic; the Rev. John A. Wade, Episcopalian, and the Rev. Adolph Radin, the Jewish rabbi. All of them, Warden Flynn declares, found it impossible to work with Mr. Munro, and Dr. Sanderson was sent in his place. Mr. Munro then organized a circle of friends and was sent by them back to the Tombs as a "missionary". Commissioner Lantry gave him a missionary's pass and this was continued up to a month ago, when it was peremptorily revoked by Commissioner Coggey.

When Mr. Lantry was still Commissioner Mr. Munro went to him one day with a story that the prisoners in the Tombs were playing the races in a poolroom across the street and that a certain keeper called salry that the brisoners in a poolroom across the street and that a certain keeper called daily to collect the bets. The Commissioner made an investigation and declared that the complaint was without foundation.

INCREASE OF TELEGRAPH RATES.

It Is Not General, Col. Clowry Says, but Relates to Unprofitable Business. Concerning the recently announced advance in the rates, Col. R. C. Clowry, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, said last night:

There has been nothing like a general increase in rates by the telegraph companies. A number of special and unprofitable rates have been increased to the standard of schedule rates. These special rates were discriminative against a large numwere discriminative against a large number of places and were originally established by competing companies, which by reason thereof went into bankruptcy. Most of the rates increased were 25 cents for ten words rates. It costs at least 30 cents each to handle such messages for short distances at the present time. The increase in the cost of telegraph materials has been from 25 to 100 per cent, within has been from 25 to 100 per cent. within the last few years. In addition to the recent horizontal increase of 10 per cent. in the salaries of all managers and opera-tors, there has been for years past a con-stant and large increase in the wages of all classes of individual employees from month to month. There is no increase in the extra word rate, consequently the news-paper rates remain the same."

No word painting in our business.

For instance—"Star" neglige shirts invite fine words, for our stock really is bigger and seems more attractive than ever.

But we've sold so many hundreds of thousands of "Stars" and the makers have been so jealous of their good name and of ours, that to most of our friends this tells the whole
